As an independent open platform with a diverse network partner base and multiple product lines, we are not only less impacted, but also better positioned to capitalize on new opportunities in various market segments," continued Mr. Ye. "Given the market conditions and our expectations as to how the industry continues to evolve, we have rolled out a series of operational developments, including product mix expansion and optimization, strategic partnership and alliance, to leverage our model and achieve long-term prosperity. As everyone's financial partner, we believe our strong data and technological expertise serve as unique advantages for us to capture tremendous market opportunities by connecting a large user base with a variety of financial products provided by different financial service providers."

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The Company uses adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net loss, each a non-GAAP financial measure, in evaluating our operating results and for financial and operational decision-making purposes.

The Company believes that adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net loss help identify underlying trends in our business that could otherwise be distorted by the effect of the expenses and gains that the Company includes in loss from operations and net loss. The Company believes that adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net loss provide useful information about our operating results, enhance the overall understanding of our past performance and future prospects and allow for greater visibility with respect to key metrics used by our management in its financial and operational decision-making.

Adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net loss should not be considered in isolation or construed as alternatives to net loss or any other measure of performance or as indicators of our operating performance. Investors are encouraged to review the historical non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net loss presented here may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies. Other companies may calculate similarly titled measures differently, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures to our data. The Company encourages investors and others to review our financial information in its entirety and not rely on a single financial measure.

Adjusted EBITDA represents EBITDA before share-based compensation expenses. EBITDA represents net loss before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization.

Adjusted net loss represents net loss before share-based compensation expenses.

For more information on this non-GAAP financial measure, please see the table captioned "Reconciliations of GAAP and non-GAAP results" set forth at the end of this press release.
